KINDNESS...I'm not the emotional person in direct but incase of kindness specially with strangers makes me melt and fills with tears. I personally experienced with lot that peopl of unknown treated me with great and I questioned with how could they and why could do that? The simple answer is “kindness” sympathy, humble, and all comes under the root of kindness... I think so!!!

Don't be kind in everything and everybody it's not required... Sometimes being kind makes us fool, emotionally damaged and a lot... Just should be awarded on our kindness is must...

“Show your kindness for whom they really need, is something so precious for precious people”...
